ORDER:

Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner as well as the learned Government Pleader for Home appearing for the respondents.

2. Petitioner seeks a writ of mandamus declaring the action of the respondents in summoning the petitioner to the police station without registering a case and directing her to pay the amounts, as illegal and arbitrary.

3. It is stated that some farmers have supplied paddy to one Subbarao who is the brother of the husband of the petitioner and as he could not pay back the amounts the said farmers have lodged a complaint with the 2nd respondent against the said Subbarao and the husband of the petitioner based on which Cr.No.23 of 2005 was registered under Sections 406 and 420 IPC on 02-07-2005 against the said Subbarao and eight others and the husband of the petitioner is A5 and her son is A9. Allegations in the said crime are that the said accused committed criminal breach of trust and cheated by procuring paddy and money from the complainant and nine others, the value of which was estimated to Rs.90,00,000/-. It is stated that the petitioner was never called to the police station and she was not at all the accused but her husband and son are only the accused.

4. In view of the said allegations made in the counter that the petitioner was not at all called to the police station as no complaint is filed against her, I am of the opinion that no further orders are required to be passed in this writ petition.

5. Writ Petition is accordingly dismissed. No order as to costs.
